MEET THE COACHES

J.C. Biagi #7

Head Coach/Assistant General Manager

A Walla Walla native and product of DeSales High School, J.C. played baseball at Walla Walla Community College before finishing his playing career at Shreveport College in Louisiana. An infielder and pitcher, the highlight of his career was a complete game win against national powerhouse LSU before a sold out crowd.

While a nation-wide search took place for the person to lead the team in the dugout, it was the mix of hometown understanding and baseball smarts that made J.C. a logical choice for the Sweets. J.C. is an assistant coach at Walla Walla Community College.

Mark Michaud #57

Pitching Coach

Mark Michaud leads the Sweets' pitching staff. In 2011 he directed a Sweets staff that finished with the second-best ERA in the league at 2.62. Michaud began his coaching career at Division III powerhouse Eastern Connecticut, and helped the Warriors win National Championships in 1998 and 2002. After leaving ECSU '02, Michaud spent the next six years serving coaching, re-cruiting and camp duties at Wisconsin-Platteville, Rockford College, Siena College and the University of Maine before returning to the Warriors in 2009.

Rob Holtzinger #12

Assistant Coach

Rob shares his life with his wife Kristine and their five children Mary Ann, Bobby, Sandra Jean, Billy and Teresa Kay. From Yakima, he spent a year as Asst. Coach at Cle Elum HS before spending three at East Valley High. He moved to Walla Walla in '91 to coach one year at WWCC, followed by 18 at De Sales HS, where he was part of 16 state championship teams. Now in his third year at WWCC, he's in his third year managing his son's Cox-Jones Little League team.

TONIGHT'S GAME

Tonight the Walla Walla Sweets are coming off a 9-5 win, their fifth straight over the Medford Rogues. Sweets left-hander Matt Hall, a freshman out of Missouri State takes the mound tonight. He's posted a 2.61 ERA for the Sweets this year in 10.1 innings of work, striking out 5 while only walking 7. The Sweets have won five of their first six series this season, led from offense by outfielder Kramer Lindell and infielders Jarod Gonzales and John Skrbec.

REWIND RECAP

Walla Walla is on a three game win streak after beating the Medford Rogues at Borleske Stadium Saturday night. Sweets starting pitcher Sean Silva lasted just 2 innings but gave up 4 runs as he was relieved by Connor Dillman, who picked up the win. Sean-Luke Brija came in to close the game and earned his league-leading 6th save. Jarod Gonzales led the Sweets' offense with a 2-for-4 night, driving in four runs. Nick Vilter also drove in a run and scored twice as he was 2-for-3.

ABOUT THE ROGUES...

The Rogues have struggled against the Sweets in the first two series all-time between the two clubs. A new member of the West Coast League, Medford has lost four consecutive games after losing two out of three to the Corvallis Knights. They are now in 5th place in the WCL South Division with a 5-12 record.
