LAST TIME OUT...

The Sweets started this season off in grand fashion, playing an entertaining game and winning 2-1 over Victoria. Easton Lucas (Pepperdine) got the win by going four and two thirds innings, striking out eight. Walla Walla also ran wild on the bases, swiping six bags. Hunter Villanueva (Fresno Pacific) stole three.

SWEET BEAT

Lucas in All-Star Form

The Sweets knew who to expect on the mound when they re-signed Easton Lucas out of Pepperdine for the second straight year. The WCL All-Star last season was brilliant in his first start, working all three pitches down in the zone. He threw first pitch strikes to 10 out of the 17 batters he faced and got at least two strikes on 12 hitters.

Runnin' Sweets

Looking at this lineup in the off-season for the Sweets, it figured to be a powerful offensive squad. That did not show in the first game of the season as Walla Walla stole six bases. It was bookends of the order that ran. Chris McCready (lead-off hitter), Hunter Villanueva (stole three bases, two hitter), Austin Kopacz (seven hitter), Connor Doyle (eight hitter) and Zach Weisz (nine hitter).
