LAST TIME OUT...

The Sweets brought the bats to Borleske last night in its 8-3 win over Victoria. Walla Walla banged out 11 hits and stole three more bases, all from Connor Doyle, to increase its league lead to nine on the year. AJ Carkner got the win in the game on the mound after three solid innings in relief.

SWEET BEAT

Sweets Stay Aggressive on Bases
Manager Frank Mutz reached into his bag of tricks last night and pulled out three suicide squeezes. One was missed at the plate, but the run scored, one was successful (back-to-back pitches) and one was missed with the runner out at home. All three were put on with Anthony Acosta at the plate and Mutz said after the game that he trusted Acosta at the plate and that was why he called them.

Karkner Shines in Relief

AJ Carkner came in in the sixth inning into a jam. Runners on first and second with no one out and the Sweets clinging to a 4-3 lead. He got out of it without allowing a run and pitched three scoreless innings, picking up five strikeouts in the process.

Tonight's Probables

Victoria: Casey Costello RHP, Orange Coast C 0-0, 0.00 ERA	Walla Walla: Joe Heineman LHP, Baylor 0-0, 0.00 ERA
