LAST TIME OUT...

The Sweets dropped their first game of the season to the Kelowna Falcons 8-5. Five errors was the downfall for Walla Walla as they gave up six unearned runs in the loss. Chris McCready hit his first home run in the game, a go-ahead, two-run shot in the fifth inning.

SWEET BEAT

Big Seventh Inning Hurts Sweets

The Sweets held a 4-3 lead into the seventh inning last night, but Kelowna exploded for five runs to put the game away. All five were unearned. Walla Walla committed three errors in the frame and only gave up two hits to the Falcons.

Mutz' Message: Move On

The Sweets' manager Frank Mutz was positive after his first loss of the season. He said that these things happen and it does not take away from the start that the Sweets had. He jokingly said, "let's go 53-1 now." The Sweets have to win tonight to do that and he was excited for the challenge.
